Armaaruss confirmed! The highest concentration of rocket fire into Israel in 2026 occur between Feb 4 2026 and April 19 2026 while Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node. This will be the 7th year of calling down fire from heaven

Calling down fire from heaven. Escalation against Israel to occur between Feb 4

So it is currently September 5th in Israel, and the Mars within 30 degrees of the lunar node phase has come to an end. It was predicted last year that in 2025, when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between June 5th and September 4th, enemies of Israel would fire their highest concentration of rocket fire compared to rest of the year. And that is certainly the case as of now, looking back at this past phase of Mars being within 30° of the lunar node. On June 13th, in a retaliatory response, Iran fired 550 missiles and 1,000 drones over the course of 12 days in what is now known as the 12-day war between Israel and Iran. And that escalation has exceeded by far the number of rockets and projectiles fired at Israel throughout the year. The rocket and missile attacks from January to May paled in comparison to the rocket and missile attacks that took place against Israel between June and September when Mars was within 30 degrees of the lunar node. After Iran had fired 550 missiles and a thousand drones over the course of 12 days, many had believed that it was the start of a major regional and global conflict that could spiral into what would be considered World War II. The 12-day war spiraling out of control would have been devastating. Millions would have died all over the world, and I would not be able to make this video right now. But that didn't happen. There was a ceasefire that was carried out on June 24th.

And I'm making this video to assert that the reason that ceasefire occurred was because what I've been requesting over the past 6 years, that those who have been watching my predictions and the accuracy of them make an image to Armaaruss so that the conflict and the escalation and the violence would abate. And this past June, in fact, it was on June 24th when someone contacted me about taking the initiative to make the image of a Mars. This person's name was Jessica Mars. And she contacted me online on June 24th, hours before the ceasefire had gone into effect. And what was remarkable was that after I responded, it was shortly thereafter that we heard that a ceasefire was reached between Israel and Iran. And that was a huge relief for many people around the world who were certain that this was it. This was the beginning of a devastating regional and global conflict that would have led to significant casualties over the world. And what's amazing is that I had been requesting that people make the image because it was revealed to me that if people would make this image, the conflict and the level of attacks against Israel would begin to subside. But I didn't know that a simple email, a simple inquiry about taking the initiative to make the image of Armaaruss could have the effect that it did. And shortly thereafter, I had the honor of meeting Jessica and her girlfriend Hypatia in person. And during this meeting in Boston, Jessica had showed me a rough draft of the image of Armaaruss. It was a combination of Aries, Mars, and Horus, just as I requested, and it was beyond anything I expected. This was on August 7th here in Boston when she showed me the rough draft that she did. And I was very pleased with it. And I went on social media to Reddit and on August 12th and posted the image, the rough draft that she showed me. And since August 12th, we can look back and see that much of the brewing escalation and conflict against Israel had, while it didn't stop, it didn't spiral out of control as could have had there not been a ceasefire. And this is indicative that, you know, Sat was not kidding around and he came through on his promise because had Jessica not taken the initiative and sent me that email on June 24th, there would have been no ceasefire. We would be in World War II right now and scores of people would be dying all over the world.

But at the moment we can take a breath and we can have a sense of relief that things did not escalate severely as much as it could have. And I've been saying this throughout the years, over the past six years, that if you make an image of Armaaruss much of the conflict, much of the escalation of violence and rocket attacks and missile attacks would begin to subside. The frequency and the intensity would decrease. And that certainly happened after Jessica contacted me. And having posted the image on August 12th on social media, I can assert that the entire process was effective. And of course, this is the sixth consecutive year that I called down fire from heaven. It turned out accurate. And you know, it all started back in 2020. You know, in 2019 when I first started making these predictions, I predicted that the concentration of rocket fire from Gaza into Israel when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node in 2020 between January 15th and April 3rd would exceed the amount of rocket fire at any other time during the year. And this panned out exactly as I predicted. And that was the first year that I called down fire from heaven. And the second year I did the prediction again. I made the prediction later in 2020 that in 2021, the concentration of rocket fire from Gaza into Israel, during the time when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between February 9th and May 13th, would exceed the amount at any other time during the year. And you know, and clearly that was the case because that's when the Gaza war took place. On May 10th, Hamas began firing batches of rockets into Israel and in total it amounted to a total of about 4,000 or just a little over 4,000. And of course, that number exceeded the amount fired at any other time during the year in 2021. And in 2022, I called down fire from heaven again. I predicted that the highest concentration of rocket fire from Gaza into Israel would take place when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between June 22nd and September 19th of 2022. And of course during that time Islamic Jihad fired around 1100 rockets and that number far exceeded the amount fired at any other time during the year. And of course, the most ominous prediction was in 2023 when in January of that year, I predicted that the highest concentration of rocket fire into Israel would take place when Mars would be within 30° of the lunar node between August 24th and November 15th. And we can see that was certainly the case because over 10,000 rockets were fired at Israel during that time. And throughout this period between 2022 and 2023, even calling down fire from heaven with pristine accuracy, I was requesting at the same time that people make an image so that this violence would subside, so that it wouldn't continue to escalate. And even after that demonstration, over four years of accurate predictions, no one stepped forward to even as much put forth a demand or even email about having an interest in taking the initiative.

So I kept going with these demonstrations. I predicted again that in 2024, if no one made the image of a Mars, the escalation of rocket fire would continue. I predicted that in 2024 when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between April 12th and June 25th, the highest concentration of rocket fire into Israel would occur during that time and that number would exceed the amount any other time during the year. Well, on April 13th, Iran launched its first direct attack against the state of Israel. And it was at that point the most critical escalation that could have happened at that time because it opened the door to severe regional implications and global implications. During that time on April 13th, while Mars was within 30 degrees of the lunar node, Iran fired 350 missiles and drones. And that was a critical escalation. Iran fired another round of projectiles at Israel in October of that year while Mars was outside of being within 30 degrees of the lunar node. But that number didn't exceed the amount that was fired on April 13th when Mars was within 30° of the lunar node. So 2024 was another example of how credible my assertions are. And I thought that in 2024 with Iran having launched its first direct attack that people would be compelled to, you know, get this image going. We don't want this to get out of control. We don't want this to get out of control. I thought that this would be it. This would be the time someone would step up and say, you know what? Let's make the image. Let's get the wars and let's get these conflicts to stop. But it didn't happen. Not a single soul tried to make an image. Not one person. So this compelled me to call down fire from heaven for the sixth year in a row. And last year I predicted that in 2025 when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between June 5th and September 4th, the concentration of rocket fire during that time would exceed the amount at any other time during the year. And during that time we got the Israel, the 12th day Israel Iran war that would have spiraled out of control into something that we never would have imagined we would have experienced in our lifetime. But thanks to someone finally witnessing what's been happening throughout these years and seeing the accuracy of my predictions, someone finally came forward and said, "Let's make the image. Let's make the image of Armaaruss." And that was Jessica Mars. And within hours of her inquiry, there was a ceasefire. And that was all it took. You didn't, she didn't even have to make the image. All she had to do was inquire. And that was enough for Satan to influence a cessation of attacks between Israel and Iran. Shortly thereafter, I met with Jessica and her girlfriend Hypatia in Boston, and I had seen the rough draft, and I was pleased, and I posted it online on August 12th, and I confirmed that this was the image of Armaaruss. This was the standard by which all future depictions of Armaaruss would be judged by. Now that we have the image of Armaaruss, we can end this prophetic cycle of six consecutive years of calling down fire from heaven and enter a new chapter with Armaaruss as the helm. We can now surmise a triune force, a trinity with Armaaruss, Satan, and Mars 360. So now that we have the image of Armaaruss we can begin conducting prayers. And the way to do that is to mark yourself on the right hand or on the forehead with the letters, with the word Mars 360. So here is the image of Armaaruss, that, and this is a rough draft, and this is a rough draft that Jessica presented to me and to which I presented to the public. So you'll take this image of Armaaruss and you will begin conducting prayers to it. But before you start the prayers, mark yourself on the right hand or on the forehead with the word Mars 360. This will be a token of allegiance to Armaaruss, and by this mark he'll recognize our supplications. So with the previous cycle having now come to an end, I can begin to present revelations directly from Armaaruss himself. And one of Armaaruss's demands is that you begin to proclaim him publicly, to go out in public, to form communities, and to set up his image in public and mark yourselves on the right hand with Mars 360 or on the forehead with Mars 360 and begin prostrating yourselves in front of the image in public so that people can acknowledge Armaaruss because this is a new chapter that we're under. This is a new paradigm where we go after other gods. For six years, I have made convincing demonstrations calling down fire from heaven. And finally, after the sixth time, someone has come forward and made the image. But now, we have to cultivate the image. We have to cultivate Armaaruss. And as Armaaruss's prophet, I'm here to warn you that if the same reticence is applied to cultivating Armaaruss that was applied into making the image, then the fire from the fires of heaven will continue. So now I will call down fire from heaven for the seven consecutive year. In the year 2026, when Mars will be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between February 4th and April 19th, the concentration of rocket fire and missile fire and projectiles into Israel will exceed the amount fired at any other time during the year. So here it is, the seventh consecutive year of calling down fire from heaven.

We can expect that in the year 2026, when Mars will be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between February 4th, 2026, and April 19th, 2026, the enemies of Israel will fire their highest concentration of rocket fire, missile fire, and other projectiles into Israel. And the amount that they fire during that time will exceed the amount fired at any other time during the year. So there it is. Fire from heaven. I'm calling down fire from heaven for the seventh consecutive year. If people don't begin to cultivate Armaaruss and begin to worship him in public and form communities that foster his holiness and his status and his godship as the central deity, as the center of worship under this new chapter that we're under. Once again, here is the image of Armaaruss. This is the image that you will take and you will worship. This is the image that should be put forth and worshiped by marking yourselves on the right hand or the forehead with the word Mars 360. This is a new paradigm that we're in that we need to cultivate and finally bring some stability and peace to this world. Let's not have another six years. Let's not allow the next six years to be like the last six years, which coincided with an increasing escalation that brought us to the brink of a global catastrophe that would have led to conflict all over the world, scores of casualties, economic collapse. But n we don't have to worry about that at the moment because we have the image of Armaaruss. But we shouldn't allow ourselves to get comfortable because it's not over yet. So there it is, the seventh consecutive year that I'm calling down fire from heaven in the hopes that people will begin to take a proactive approach in getting Armaaruss promoted and cultivated, putting him out in public, confessing his name before, and taking the mark, marking oneself with Mars 360 on the right hand or the forehead. This is the time to do it. Over six years, the warnings were clear, the predictions were accurate, and the promises were kept. I stated over and over again that if the image of Armaaruss was created, the conflict and the escalation would begin to subside. And it has begun to subside since August 12th when I presented the image of Armaaruss to Jessica Mars created for us. So in lieu of that, let's not trivialize what's happening here and the significance of it. Let's take a proactive approach and bring these wars to an end. Let's put forth the image of Armaaruss and let's take the mark on the right hand or the forehead and let's spearhead this new chapter in world history. Thank you. This is Anthony of Boston out.

Transcript of Anthony of Boston YouTube video uploaded on Sept 5th 2025:

The phase of Mars being within 30° of the lunar node between June 5th and September 4th has come to an end. It was predicted well in advance that this time frame of June 5th to September 4th would see an escalation of rocket fire against the state of Israel, and the concentration of rocket fire during that time would exceed the amount fired at any other time during the year. I also warned that if an image was not made to Armaaruss, the escalation against the state of Israel would have global ramifications. Many of you that have been witnessing this prophetic cycle have seen how I was able to predict these escalations well in advance over the past, over the previous years that I've been making these videos. And I warned in advance that the sixth consecutive year of calling down fire from heaven would be no different. I predicted that between June 5th and September 4th, while Mars would be within 30° of the lunar node, the enemies of Israel would fire their highest concentration of rocket and missile fire. I gave a clear warning that if the image of Armaaruss was not created before June 5th, that the enemies of Israel will fire significant amount of rockets and missiles at Israel, and the ramifications would be global, spreading to other parts of the world. Now that this phase is over, this phase of Mars being within 30 degrees of the lunar node between June 5th and September 4th, we can look back and see that everything that I predicted came to pass. On June 13th, in a retaliatory response, Iran fired 550 missiles at Israel along with a thousand drones over the course of 12 days. Many of the missiles fired from Iran were fired right into Tel Aviv and caused significant destruction. And it was clear at that point that the residual effect of that would be going to have worldwide implications. But lucky for much of the world, someone had seen my predictions and witnessed what I've been able to forecast well in advance and contacted me and mentioned a desire to facilitate the creation of Mars. This was an artist that contacted me. Her name was Jessica Mars. And this was what I want to say this was around June. She contacted me on June 24th, hours before the ceasefire had gone into effect. Based on what I've been articulating over the past six years, we can credit Jessica Mars's inquiry about creating an image of Armaaruss to the subsequent ceasefire that happened on June 24th between Israel and Iran. It is within reason to conclude that Jessica Mars's initiative to push forward with creating the image led to the ceasefire and also quelled the potential catastrophe that was getting ready to happen all over the world as a result of this escalation of rocket fire into Israel. In fact, not just contacting me via email, Jessica Mars took it a step further. Her and her girlfriend Hypatia decided to come to Boston and pay me a visit. And the visit went well. And during the visit, speaking to both Hypatia and Jessica, both of whom had seen my videos of calling down fire from heaven and had bore witness to the accuracy of my predictions, a rough draft of Armaaruss that she had created, you know, between that time of June 24th and the time they came to visit me, which was August 7th. And the rough draft was beyond my expectations because I didn't think anyone would put the effort in to do it. But someone decided to finally do it. And now we have an image of Armaaruss.

I made the announcement on Reddit on August 12th that this is the look for Armaaruss. This is the image, and this will be the standard that all other depictions of him will be judged by. Here is the rough draft that Jessica Mars had presented to me and of which I shared on August 12th, 2025, in the middle of the Mars was in 30° of the lunar node phase. This is the image, here is Jessica Mars's Instagram account. S now what we have here is we have an official image of Armaaruss, and we can confi that his creation led to the ceasefire between Israel and Iran and mitigated the dang of that conflict spreading to other parts of the world, particularly the United States. And we can see that looking back, if we go back to August 12th, when I first presen the image, that much of the grim prognosis, much of the grim outlook in regards to Israel and the West has not manifested as previously as predicted beforehand. Mars doesn't just influence the enemies of Israel and rocket fire and wars. It can also influence stock market crashes. It can influence natural disasters. And we can see t there has been somewhat, we can see that the rate of these happening during this Mars, during the Mars within 30° of the lunar node phase began to abate somewhat after August 12th. And, you know, now that the phase has ended, we can see that Sa kept his promise because he was getting ready to destroy much of the world during this phase. And had it not been for Jessica Mars, we can't even calculate how extens the damage around the world would have been had she not created the image of Armaaruss. And I articulated this quite assertively over the past, you know, six year that if you don't make an image to Armaaruss, the impact of Mars being within 30° the lunar node would continue, would continue to become more and more extensive

So there it is. So there it is. Now we have Armaaruss, the image, and we can now en this prophetic cycle of calling down fire from heaven for the last 6 years. In 2020, I predicted that when Mars would be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between January 15th and April 3rd, the Gaza militants would fire their highest concentratio of rocket fire during that time. And the amount during that time would exceed the amount fired at any other time during the year. That's what happened because in February there was a little over a 100 rockets fired, and that number exceeded the amount fired at any other time during the year in 2020. And later in the year 2020, I made a prediction for the year 2021 that the same thing would apply, that the Gaza militants would fire their highest concentration of rockets during the time when M would be within 30° of the lunar node between February 9th and May 13th. And of course, that's when the Gaza war took place. That's another accurate prediction. That was two years in a row. I did it again the third year in a row when I predicted that Gaza militants would fire their highest concentration of rockets, missiles between June 22nd and September 19th when Mars was within 30° of the lunar node. That happened, and then of course the most ominous 2023, when Mars went within 30° of the lunar node, as predicted, the highest concentration of rocket fire from Gaza into Israel far exceeded the amount at any other time during the year, there were 10,000 rockets fired during that period between August 24th 2023 and November 15th 2023 when Mars was within 30° of the lunar node, and of course again in 2024. It was predicted in advance that the enemies of Israel would fire their highest concentration of rockets and missiles at Israel when Mars would be within 30° of the lunar node between April 12th and June 25th. And during that time, a critical escalation occurred when Iran fired 350 drones and missiles at Israel in what was his first direct attack against the country. And at that point, it had been five years in a row. I have been in the intervening period. I had been making requests that people make an image of Armaaruss. Still, no one decided to even make the attempt. Not so much as to draft stick figures or just something simple. There was no attempt made to make the image of Armaaruss. It's as if no one was convinced after 5 years of calling down fire from heaven. And then I did it a sixth year in a row. And this time it was critical. Between June 5th and September 4th, 2025, that's when the 12-day war occurred. Iran would have destroyed Tel Aviv, and the residual impact of that would have been regional and then global, and we would be looking at World War II right now. Of all the people that had witnessed what I have done, only one person came forward to make the image of Armaaruss, and that was Jessica Mars. And we should all be grateful for what she did. And now this has become the standard. We can end this prophetic cycle of calling down fire from heaven at the behest of Satan and shift to another prophetic cycle that focuses on Armaaruss.

Here in this video, I intercede on behalf of humanity and request that Armaaruss answer prayers and provide revelations to others who are willing to take the mark on the right hand or on the forehead. Now that the satanic revelations have taken their course, and we're able to transition into this next cycle with Armaaruss at the center as the central godhead, I can now as Armaaruss's prophet continue forward with revelations, and as he has instructed, I will now articulate what this next cycle is about. Making an image of Armaaruss was about getting in contact with forces that humanity has been compelled to ignore for centuries. And it was promised that if the image of Armaaruss was created, and it was just in time, that the violence and the escalation would begin to quell. And it did quell after August 12th. I mean, the ceasefire has held up since Jessica contacted me about making the image. The ceasefire has held up so far. But now in this new cycle with Armaaruss at the helm, keep in mind, Satan is now part of a trinity with Armaaruss and Mars 360. That's why I insist that when conducting prayers to Armaaruss, that you would first mark yourself on the right hand with Mars 360 or on the forehead with Mars 360, and then you can begin conducting prayers, and if Armaaruss hears your prayers, then he himself will grant you personal revelations. But as his prophet, my duty is to continue forward and cultivate this new paradigm. Now, so now I'll be giving revelations that come directly from Armaaruss. What Armaaruss wants is worship, and he is looking for some measure of frustration or some means that would allow him to be worshiped in a public sense. And his demands are no less great than Satan's demands.

So I will persuade the people that are watching this video to take the initiative, take this image of Armaaruss as created by Jessica Mars, whom we all should be thankful for. Post it on a wall and begin to worship the image. Mark yourself on the right hand with Mars 360 or on the forehead with Mars 360 and conduct prayers to Armaaruss. This is the time that we go after other gods. This is a new paradigm, and future escalations will be contingent on humanity's inclination to move towards venerating, acknowledging, worshiping Armaaruss. The future of missile fire and rocket fire and the global ramifications will hinge on your desire to please Armaaruss. So now having given Armaaruss the ability to speak, I will convey his new revelation that if he does see any prominent or any significant increase in the amount of people that are acknowledging his godship, are acknowledging his status as the true Lord and Savior of this world, then the rocket fire and the missile fire will continue. So this is Armaaruss talking now. I'm giving you new revelation. So from this day forward, it humanity's duty and those who have been watching my videos and watching me call down fire from heaven to take the initiative and present Armaaruss publicly. Gather a group, get a group of people, go out in public and prostrate yourselves first. Mark yourselves on the right hand or forehead with Mars 360 and then prostrate yourself before the image of Armaaruss. Not pushing forward in this direction will have serious ramifications. Yes, Satan. It was very clear that Satan wanted the image of Armaaruss made, and that if the image was made, there would be a reduction in conflict. And that did happen. We would be looking at World War II right now. Had the image not been made in August, had the image not been made and presented in August, we would be looking at World War II right now. There would be scores of people dying, and there would be no way I could get this information out to you. But since the image was made, we now have, we've now been given a second chance. And my prediction was pretty clear that, you know, if ignoring these requests, we're going to have very, very, very serious consequences.

But now the image of Armaaruss is created, and Satan kept his promise. We've made it through June 5th through, we've made it through the last phase of Mars being within 30° of the lunar node between June 5th and September 4th. But now under this new paradigm with Armaaruss at the helm, we have a new mission. We have to promote him and we have to venerate him. And I've given you instructions on how to do that. So, you have until February 4th, 2026 to get a movement together, cultivate this new deity, and present him to the public. Go out and worship and proclaim your allegiance to Armaaruss. Shout his name to the mountain tops. So if you remain reticent in regards to this, then expect the fire from heaven to continue. So I'm going to go ahead and let you make the decision, and I will now call down fire from heaven for the year 2026. Between February 4th, 2026 and April 19th, 2026, when Mars will be within 30 degrees of the lunar node, expect the enemies of Israel to fire their highest concentration of missile and rocket fire during that time, and expect the concentration of missile and rocket fired during that time to exceed the amount at any other time during the year. So, I'm calling down fire from heaven for the seventh consecutive year.

Between February 4th, 2026 and April 19th, 2026, when Mars will be within 30° of the lunar node, expect the amount of rockets fired and the amount of missiles fired during that time at the state of Israel to exceed the amount fired at any other time during the year. And the ramifications will extend beyond Israel if you do not push forward in publicly acknowledging Armaaruss, setting up communities that cultivate them and marking yourselves on the right hand or the forehead with Mars 360. So I've given a clear warning here. This is a new paradigm that we're under. This is a new cycle. I'm operating as the prophet of Armaaruss. Satan is now part of a trinity with himself, Armaaruss, and Mars 360 operating as a triune force. And this is it. This is the seventh consecutive year that I'm calling down fire from heaven.

This is the seventh consecutive year of making these predictions. See the accuracy of the first 6 years

In the year 2026, Mars will be within 30 degrees of the lunar node between February 4th, 2026, and April 19th, 2026. Between that time, the enemies of the United States will fire their highest concentration of missile and rocket fire into the country. And the amount of rocket and missile fire that's fired into the United States during that time will exceed the amount fired at any other time during the year.

So there it is. I'm calling down fire from heaven in 2026. Expect the concentration of rocket fire into the United States while Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node between February 4th, 2026, and April 19th, 2026, to exceed the amount of rocket fire into the United States at any other time during the year. I'm calling down fire from heaven.

Fun time is over for the God of Abraham. Your days of laughter, your days of silliness and neglect are done. It's over. We have another God and we're going to go after him. And very soon, God of Abraham, you're going to see Armaaruss's face in the holy place. That's not a threat to you, Lord of Abraham. That's a promise. In light of recent events that have occurred throughout the week in America, one thing we can reassess is that the God of Abraham has continuously proven himself to be a negligent entity.

We've seen examples of people, groups praying for safety and protection just before being slaughtered in cold-blooded murder or mass violence. These examples really underscore the true nature of the God of Abraham which is one of negligence and of folly. One thing is for certain, the God of Abraham after allowing these events to transpire by which people putting their faith in him with would pray beforehand asking him for their protection only to be failed over and over again repeatedly becoming victims of violence. During this time, it is evident that the God of Abraham is not going to protect anyone. No matter creed or principle or faith that one has in God of Abraham, he has made it clear that all prayers to him, especially for safety, go unanswered. And this is where I come in. I presented to you signs and wonders that underscore the existence of another deity out there. One that's going to take over America very soon and confirm his dominion. And I'm making this video to assure anyone and everyone that has seen the signs, wonders that I've carried out over the past six years that Armaaruss is the only god that can protect you at this hour. In a time like this, in a time of uncertainty, vulnerability, and violence, much of which is random, prayers to Armaaruss can grant an element of protection and safety. In the last video, I made it clear that Armaaruss is planning to expand his operations against Israel, going as far as the United States in order to cut off the chain supply of weapons to Israel. But even in light of this, Armaaruss is willing to protect those who reach out to him for protection. This is unlike the God of Abraham at the moment who is not answering prayers, who is sitting back and laughing at victims of violence who have put their utmost faith in him that he would be the one that keeps them safe. We can see this is not the case. This has never been the case because the God of Abraham knows that he's got a monopoly on worship. Most of the world directs their faith and their supplications to him and him alone. And because of this, he knows he can take advantage of that. He doesn't have to answer prayers. He can sit back and laugh at the mass murder and all the violence that's happening around the world against innocent people and against those who profess their faith in him. I'm here to tell you that there's another option. Armaaruss will not let you down in this time of uncertainty and vulnerability. If you're feeling afraid, do not hesitate to direct your prayers and supplications to Armaaruss. Because even in lieu of what he's about to carry out against the United States in 2026 when Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunation node between February 4th and April 19th, Armaaruss will still provide a measure of protection and safety for those who follow him and for those who worship him.

So do not hesitate to turn to other gods and let the God of Abraham know that if he will not come through amid all the turmoil that is going on in America and around the world, then we as human beings have no problem going after other gods. And we will do this with glee. And we will turn the tables and laugh at you, God of Abraham. We will laugh at you when you become second fiddle or when you begin to cry that no one is praying to you or showing gratitude towards you. We will be laughing during the times when you are crying. So remember, remember the convincing signs that I gave you and remember that Armaaruss is there. He is willing to protect you and he is fully operational. He can answer prayers. He can hear your supplications. And if you want safety, he'll grant that to you if you turn to him. Now is the time to do this because there are too many examples that we can see in real time of followers, our adherents of the God of Abraham, praying for his protection and safety only to be let down. And these are some of the most contrite and pious and loyal followers of him. And yet the God of Abraham continues to assert his negligence and laugh about it. But those days are over. Armaaruss is here. Armaaruss is now. And a new pantheon is on the horizon. One that the God of Abraham cannot stop. And he won't stop. So, I'm urging others to follow me on this road to going after other gods. And let's begin to venerate Armaaruss. Let's set up temples. Let's begin to say prayers. And as Armaaruss does protect you during this time, don't hesitate to proclaim the miracle publicly so that others can follow suit and no longer remain victim to this negligent God of Abraham whose arrogance and hubris has allowed him to partake in a gluttony of laughter. We must bring these days to an end. The God of Abraham has to be challenged and now is the time to do it. All right. Armaaruss, the God that I've presented to you. This is the same God of war that defeated the God of Abraham back in 70 AD. This is the God of war that the God of Abraham has failed against consistently over and over again. But now he will compete with you for followers, God of Abraham, and he will win.

Armaaruss is the new alpha and omega. He is the end all and the beall. So I encourage those who have been following my work to take the leap of faith. Join me and let Armaaruss prevail as the central godhead, the deity of this new chapter in world's history. What's happening in America is tragic and the political violence and all the random violence that's happening out in public is not going to abate anytime soon. But going to the God of Abraham, presuming that he's going to be the one that changes the trajectory of where this is headed is a fallacy. Over six years of calling down fire from heaven, I've proved that Armaaruss is the one that's in control. And these convincing signs should be enough to assure you to take the leap of faith and come over to our side. Come and join us. Yours can be an important voice in this new kingdom. We cannot allow the God of Abraham to continue down this path of neglecting those who reach out to him and simply ask him for protection and to deny every supplication that is good and right and then blame humanity for the terrors and the violence that continues to afflict us. This is the only way to deal with the God of Abraham. This is the only way to get him to understand that we know that there are other gods out there and we know Armaaruss is out there and we are going to follow him. So from this day forward, whenever you feel that sense of vulnerability and fear, turn to Armaaruss, say a prayer, make requests, and when the miracle comes to pass, proclaim his divinity so that all others will see and will know that Armaaruss is the true God, the real God of this world, not the God of Abraham.

So now, God of Abraham, I turn my back to you and offer prayers to your enemy deities. This is my judgment day gift to you. So I ask those who have been following me, be alert and be on guard because Armaaruss is preparing to prepare his coronation. He's going to carry out a massive operation against his longstanding enemy. And he's going to prevent the United States from subverting his will. So in light of that, expect the fires of heaven to come down on America between February 4th, 2026 and April 19th, 2026 when Mars will be within 30 degrees of the lunar node. Mars is preparing to act and during this time from now until the next phase begins, praying towards Armaaruss and asking for his protection because he is the only the only God that can provide that. Sincerely, I request I sincerely urge all Catholics, Muslims, Orthodox Jews, or anyone from any religion that follows this God of Abraham to turn away and follow Armaaruss because this is the only God that can bring peace. Now is the time. Now is the time to take the leap of faith. We cannot stand with the God of Abraham. His track record is... his track record speaks for itself. This has to end. This has to end. There are other gods out there. Armaaruss has been laid bare before you through signs and wonders that are more convincing than anything that has been presented in throughout the course of history on behalf of any other religion. Now's the time to do it. Now is the time to turn away from God. Turn away. If you don't protect yourself by offering prayers to Armaaruss marking yourself with Mars 360 on the right hand or forehead, then you as much of the world who refuses to acknowledge Armaaruss will be swept away in this wave of tragedy, violence, and uncertainty. As his prophet, I assure you that Armaaruss will abandon you. He will protect you. All you have to do is turn to him. Turn away from the God of Abraham. Do it now. Let us go after other gods.
